

Revelation 16:1-15

Richard Wurmbrand titled chapter 8 of his book 'PROCLAIM THE TRUTH'

"Some years ago while in Norway, I dreamed I heard a voice that said, "You will not always have a God." For a long time the dream troubled me, until finally I grasped its meaning. Meister Eckhardt had a similar intuition: "The man united with God has no God."

The verb "to have" does not exist in Hebrew, the language of the Bible. Even in modern Hebrew no one can say "I have money", "I have a car", "I have a house"; neither can one say "I have a god."

We are never intended to have a God. We were meant to realize our high calling by being one with God. Jesus says, "You are gods" (John 10:34). We are meant to be overcomers, to whom Jesus gave this promise: "To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne" (Revelation 3:21).

Only God sits on God's throne. This is also my final destination. Then evidently I will no longer have God. I will be WITH God.

Everything less than becoming godlike is unworthy of a child of God. It is a shame for a prince to be only a good shoemaker.

Realize your calling and you will not ask such questions as to why rivers overflow, volcanoes erupt, children are in hospitals, and tyrants reign. You will sit on the heavenly throne from which universes are created and ruled. You will be above these things."

Proverbs 3:5-8

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the Lord and depart from evil.

It will be health to your flesh, and strength to your bones.
